Life at Harbourside

We believe a good month feels natural rather than scheduled. Breakfast is long, the sea is a short walk away and the evenings belong to whoever brings a guitar. Food is not included: guests shop at the Tuesday market, cook for themselves or for everyone, and eat out in the harbour when the mood takes them.

Most days follow a loose rhythm:

- Morning movement on the terrace before it gets warm
- Focused work or rest until the early afternoon
- Swims, hikes and boat trips when the light softens
- A shared table and a circle on two evenings a week

Every session adapts to who turns up. Nothing is compulsory, and nobody keeps score.

What's included

- ✓ Your room for the whole stay
- ✓ Two evening circles every week
- ✓ A shared kitchen and the Tuesday market run
- ✓ Morning movement, six days a week
- ✓ A boat day and two guided hikes
- ✓ Fast Wi-Fi and a quiet room to work in
